MEET LA

DOWNTIME IN THE WESTSIDE: WHAT TO SEE & DO BEFORE, DURING OR AFTER YOUR MEETING

Glance

Downtime in the Westside

When there's downtime from meetings, attendees can easily catch the vibes from LA's Westside. Whether it's getting a taste of the local food scene, indulging in retail therapy or checking out world-class entertainment options, this itinerary features some of the best this vibrant region has to offer.

Morning

Start the Day the LA Way

It's easy to jump-start the day in the Westside before your meeting or event begins. First, treat yourself to a delicious Californian breakfast at the iconic Polo Lounge inside the Beverly Hills Hotel. After savoring a delightful morning meal, unleash your inner movie buff with a fun and informative Sony Pictures Studios Tour. Or, if you want to take in some art and culture, head over to the Getty Center to enjoy stunning works of art, incredible architecture and panoramic views that capture the essence of Los Angeles.

Mid-Day

Mid-Day Explorations

Have a couple of hours to kill between sessions? Fuel up with authentic pasta dishes for a delicious lunch at Il Pastaio. Having refueled, embark on a shopping adventure filled with trendy fashions and more along Rodeo Drive or in Century City. Need to relax and unwind? Drop by the Beverly Wilshire for a pampering spa treatment and a refreshing dip in the outdoor pool. Cap off the afternoon by stopping by Fairmont Century Plaza for an espressotini or another refreshing drink at the lobby bar or Lumiere.

Evening

Sunset Experiences

When the sun starts to set, attendees are in for a thrilling time when the meeting breaks. Start the evening with a festive happy hour featuring live jazz at the lobby bar of the Beverly Hills Marriott. With jazz melodies setting the tone, let the night continue with a delectable dinner of Latin, Mediterranean and Asian-inspired cuisine with panoramic views at West Restaurant LA on the 17th floor of Hotel Angeleno. But the night has only just begun. Head over to Dante at The Maybourne Beverly Hills to mix and mingle while enjoying craft cocktails and martinis with scenic views. Or, take a step through the looking glass at Wasp in a Wig inside the SLS Beverly Hills — a cool speakeasy inspired by the lost chapter of Lewis Carroll's Alice in Wonderland.
