THE REGIONS OF LOS ANGELES

To truly experience Los Angeles, invite your group to explore some of its diverse neighborhoods. From the Downtown creative scene to the food haven of Sawtelle Japantown, here's a guide to the best of L.A.

HOLLYWOOD BOWL

HOLLYWOOD, the entertainment capital of the world, is an essential part of the L.A. experience. Film enthusiasts will love the renovated TCL Chinese Theatre with over 900 seats and one of the world's largest IMAX auditoriums. Outside, take a walk among the brass stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Tour the Dolby® Theatre, home of the Oscars®, at Hollywood & Highland, a complex at the iconic intersection where shopping, dining, and entertainment opportunities surround a spectacular courtyard modeled after historic film sets. Not far away, Universal Studios Hollywood<sup>SM</sup> offers thrill-seeking groups a glimpse of movie-making magic with rides, shows, and tours. And the theme park recently opened The Wizarding World of Harry Potter™, a new section of attractions based on J.K. Rowling's epic book series. In addition to Tinseltown glitz, Hollywood encompasses neighborhoods such as Thai Town and Little Armenia, with a rich array of ethnic cuisines.

DOLBY THEATRE

ROOFTOP HOTEL BREAKFAST:

DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES

DOWNTOWN, LOS ANGELES

DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES features hip hotels, trendsetting restaurants, and world-class entertainment venues that sustain a thriving art scene and nightlife along walkable streets. L.A. LIVE is a vibrant entertainment complex offering restaurants and live music venues—perfect for large groups. Designed by Frank Gehry, Walt Disney Concert Hall is a modern architectural masterpiece and right next door to the city's newest cultural and design showpiece, The Broad. Located nearly 1,000 feet above downtown, OUE Skyspace LA is California's tallest open-air observation deck with panoramic 360-degree views and one-of-a-kind thrills.

CLIFTON'S REPUBLIC:

Clifton's is the only iconic cafeteria of its kind that remains from the 1920s, but with five floors, a ballroom and multiple bars, this unique space is also known for its swing dancing scene.

GRAMMY MUSEUM:

Four floors of cutting-edge exhibits and interactive experiences brings out the music lover out in everyone.

DODGER STADIUM:

The Dodger Stadium Tour provides behind-the-scenes access to some of the most restricted areas of the ballpark. As the country's third-oldest baseball stadium, Dodger Stadium remains one of the game's most beautiful and most historic venues.

STAPLES CENTER:

This epic sports and entertainment center hosts over 250 events annually. The arena's reputation for world-class amenities and exemplary service make it the perfect platform for corporate business development or employee rewards.

BREWERY TOURS:

L.A. Beer Hop and SoCal Brew Bus take you on a "flight," visiting all of the best breweries in L.A.

DTLA CLUB CRAWL:

Downtown L.A. has quickly become one of the country's hottest nightlife destinations.

GRAND CENTRAL MARKET:

Recently celebrating its 100th anniversary, Grand Central Market is a Downtown staple. Choose from dozens of vendors with cuisines ranging from Italian to Asian to artisanal PB&J. The market is also home to an outpost for one of L.A.'s most well-known breweries: Golden Road.

ARCHITECTURAL TOURS:

L.A. is home to some of the most original and innovative architecture in the world, as well as being home to virtually every historic style.

ARTS & CULTURE:

You must enjoy the music and arts scene while in Downtown LA, which holds the city's historical theater district and ultramodern Walt Disney Concert Hall. For a more visual art, visit the MOCA, The Broad or walk through the Arts District for stunning street art.

THE VALLEY & NEIGHBORING REGIONS

RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL FOUNDATION
AND INSTITUTE

NEIGHBORING REGIONS

The surrounding regions of Los Angeles also offer exclusive entertainment options, family-style restaurants, and endless natural and cultural attractions. Ventura Boulevard offers excitement for every group, from boutique shopping to eclectic eats. Many of L.A.'s most acclaimed sushi restaurants are located on "Sushi Row" in Studio City, while dozens of shops are sure to please the entire group. The vibrant NoHo Arts District in North Hollywood is home to the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and an array of cafés, boutiques, and theaters. The Valley Performing Arts Center features top-quality performances in a world-class, eco-friendly setting. Just 10 minutes north of Downtown, Pasadena is the home of the Rose Bowl, the Eaton Canyon Nature Center and the Norton Simon Museum.

GOLF:

For outdoor relaxation, send attendees to the wide fairways of Woodley Lakes Golf Course near Lake Balboa or Pacific Palms Resort.

NORTH HOLLYWOOD:

The NoHo Arts District is full of eclectic boutique stores, unique restaurants and bistros, and a thriving performing arts scene. The Valley Performing Arts Center offers shows by renowned artists, dancers and actors.

RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL FOUNDATION AND INSTITUTE:

This incredible building offers splendid views of the surrounding Simi Valley and features a life-size replica of the Oval Office. They offer space for board meetings and galas.

FOUR SEASONS WESTLAKE VILLAGE:

An idyllic retreat that offers proximity to

Malibu, fine dining and spa services that were voted top in America by Conde Nast.

PASADENA:

Grand, elegant, traditional. Nowhere is that blessed union more apparent than in the city of Old Pasadena, where scores of historic brick buildings have been thoroughly restored. The old buildings house scads of up-to-date shops and more than 100 bistros, cafes, bars, nightclubs, and restaurants.

ROSE BOWL STADIUM:

College football games in the historic Rose Bowl Stadium are popular, too—the stadium and field are available as a unique event venue.

SANTA ANITA PARK:

A Thoroughbred racetrack, offering some of the most prominent racing events in the United States.

SHOPPING

» SHOPPING IS ONE OF THE BEST ACTIVITIES in Los Angeles, whether it's chic boutiques or world-famous stores along palm-lined avenues. Across the city, visitors will find exclusive shopping from well-known designers, one-of-a-kind vintage pieces, and plenty of luxury goods, gifts, and much more.

DOWNTOWN

Downtown visitors will love the many specialty shopping districts, including the Fashion, Flower, and Jewelry districts. For those wanting to dip in and out of the sunshine, FIGat7th offers a recently renovated open-air shopping mall. The Bloc is L.A.'s newest shopping mecca with an outdoor courtyard, Macy's flagship store, unique shops, and restaurants. Olvera Street is a preserved Mexican marketplace with gift shops and street vendors that sell handmade crafts.

HOLLYWOOD

Enjoy shopping on Hollywood's famous thoroughfares like Sunset, Santa Monica, and Hollywood boulevards, with blocks of boutiques and gift shops among the crowded cafes and restaurants. Hip vintage items can be found on Melrose Avenue, while Amoeba Music, a music lover's dream, offers every genre of music, books, and the occasional celebrity sighting.

WESTSIDE

Visitors looking to relax and shop will love the luxurious vibe of the Westside. Westfield Century City is a large, lively complex with restaurants, shops, name-brand stores, and a movie theater. For the smaller-local experience, visitors can check out the high-end boutiques and cafes on Robertson

Boulevard, West 3rd Street and Melrose.

Another gem: The Golden Triangle in Beverly Hills, with Rodeo Drive at its epicenter, has chic boutiques, world-famous shopping with classics like Neiman Marcus, Hermes, Tom Ford, and Cartier. Those in the market for upscale style will find a fashion utopia.

BEACH CITIES

For boutique shopping, great eats, and people-watching, head to Abbot Kinney Boulevard in Venice, and discover boho designs, classic men's style, and artisan-made items. Or head down the Venice Ocean Front Walk for a stroll lined with gift shops and local artists selling their wares. The main streets of Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, and Long Beach also offer plenty of shops to explore.

NEIGHBORING REGIONS

Shopping venues are easy to find in the Valley. A perfect walking-and-shopping street, Ventura Boulevard has many shops, boutiques, mini-malls, and indoor-outdoor centers which include theaters and restaurants. The strip in Studio City runs from Laurel Canyon Boulevard to Whitsett Avenue and features a fun mix of name-brand stores and designer boutiques. The NoHo Arts District is full of eclectic boutique stores, unique restaurants, bistros, and a thriving performing arts scene.

FOODIE'S PARADISE:

LAX offers 742 daily nonstop flights to 1,010 cities in the U.S., and 1,280 weekly nonstop flights to 77 cities in 42 countries on 64 commercial air carriers. Known as the U.S. gateway to Asia, LAX offers more nonstop service and markets to Asia than any other U.S. airport.

LOS ANGELES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

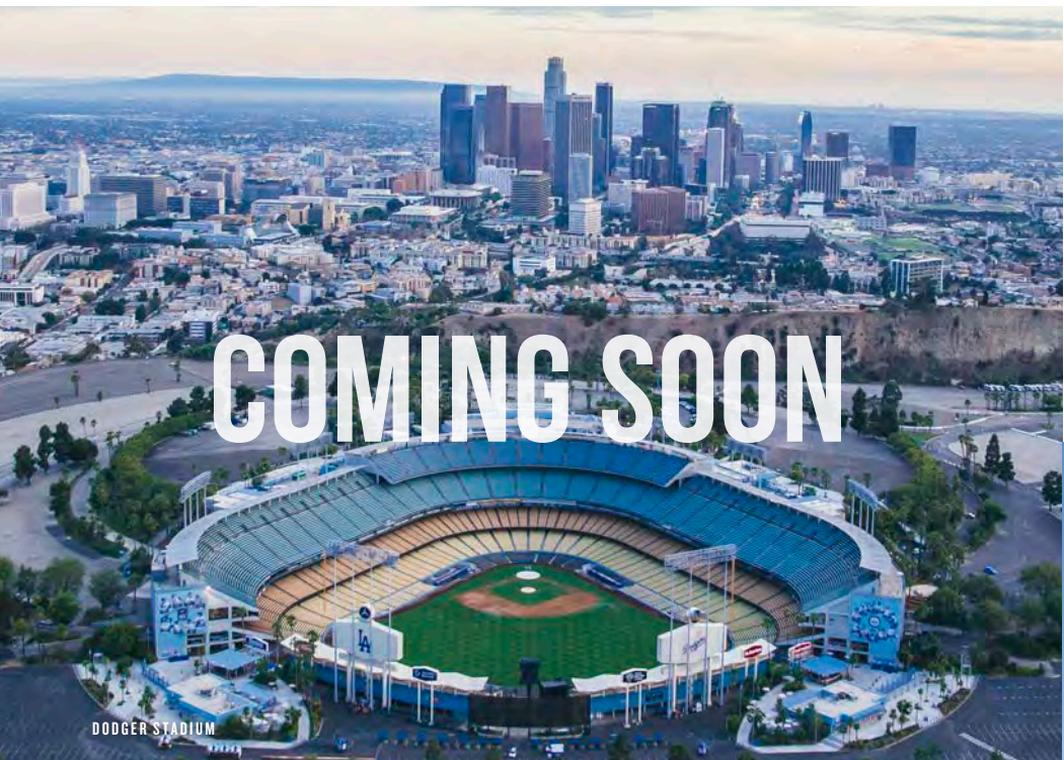

Named by Skytrax as the 2017 Top 10 Most Improved Airports, Los Angeles World Airports is investing $14 billion to transform LAX. LAX terminals host upscale shopping, dining, and dramatic views. To put the “L.A. back into LAX”, some of Rodeo Drive and Melrose Avenue’s glittering glass storefronts and world-famous restaurants were brought into LAX, including celebrity chefs, artisanal dining at places like Border Grill, and retailers like Emporio Armani. Included in the upgrades is a first-class, swift, convenient, and reliable way to access LAX and a seamless connection to public transportation. The $5.5 billion Modernization Program will feature an Automated People Mover, a Consolidated Rent-a-car center and a stop linking to the regional public rail system. The major U.S. airlines are also investing more than $1 billion to renovate terminals in order to cater to smart and savvy travelers. For more information, visit LAXisHappening.com.

THE PRIVATE SUITE is a newly-built remote terminal designed for First and Business Class travelers seeking ultimate logistics, security, and privacy. Serving all commercial airlines, The Private Suite features private TSA screening and Customs processing. It is the first-of-its-kind in the U.S.

THE PRIVATE SUITE

THE ACADEMY MUSEUM

The Academy Museum will be the world's premier institution dedicated to the art and science of movies. Located on Wilshire and Fairfax in Los Angeles, the Museum will be simultaneously immersive, experimental, educational, and entertaining. More than a museum, this dynamic film center will offer unparalleled experiences and insights into movies and moviemaking.

OCEANWIDE PLAZA

Oceanwide Plaza will set a new standard for the cosmopolitan lifestyle in Downtown Los Angeles. Anchored by the new Park Hyatt Los Angeles hotel, this extraordinary collection of residential offerings and an open-air retail space is uniquely positioned just next to the L.A. Live entertainment complex.

THE LOS ANGELES STADIUM AT HOLLYWOOD PARK

This project will include a 70,000-seat open-air stadium that will be home to NFL games for both the L.A. Rams and the L.A. Chargers. It will also host the Super Bowl and the opening and closing ceremonies of the 2028 Summer Olympics, along with major concerts and other year-round entertainment. The stadium will be part of a larger district that will include public parks, retail and office space, dining and hotel rooms.

THE LUCAS MUSEUM OF NARRATIVE ART

Designed by award-winning architect Ma Yansong of MAD Architects, the $1 billion Lucas Museum will join the L.A. Memorial Coliseum, California African American Museum, California Science Center and the Natural History Museum in Exposition Park. It will be a one-of-a-kind gathering place dedicated to the power of visual storytelling and the evolution of art and moving images.

2028 OLYMPICS

Los Angeles reimagined the role of an Olympic host city, maximizing the use of our existing world-class facilities, civic spaces, unique geography and iconic backdrops. While the city is making important investments in infrastructure ahead of the Games, it is also making the most of the gems that already exist—from beach volleyball courts to historic stadiums to a variety of cultural institutions.
