

HOTELS – DINING – ARTS & CULTURE – SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT – OUTDOORS & WELLNESS - LAX

LOS ANGELES DINING GUIDE

DineLA Restaurant Week Turns Sweet 16 (City-wide)

Los Angeles has one of the most dynamic dining scenes in the country, offering everything from street food to Michelin-starred restaurants. The bi-annual 15-day dining event will return from July 12-26 this summer, with an expected 400 or more restaurant partners. As a community-focused program, DineLA welcomes foodies to enjoy restaurants and cuisines of all price levels.

<https://www.discoverlosangeles.com/dinela>

RECENTLY OPENED

Level 8 (Downtown)

A new multi-dimensional dining, drinking, and entertainment concept from Houston Hospitality located within the new AC/Moxy hotel opened in September. It features eight venues with immersive discoveries around every corner, including teppanyaki at Maison Kasai, seiro mushi and hot pot at Lucky Mizu, South American grill Qué Barbaro, Golden Hour poolside carousel bar, Mr. Wanderlust piano bar and jazz lounge, and Sinners y Santos, a cathedral-inspired nightclub. From lunch to late night, there's no reason to leave!

<https://www.level8dtdla.com/>

La Lo La (Downtown)

La Lo La Rooftop is an ethereal, sophisticated oasis high above the heart of Downtown Los Angeles. Located on the 34th floor of the recently debuted AC Hotel Downtown LA, the expansive wraparound rooftop, which spans almost 4,000 sq.ft, is designed by the award-winning design studio Yabu Pushelberg, providing an intimate setting for visitors and locals. Here, guests are invited to enjoy specialty cocktails, Spanish-style tapas, and a rotating program of live music and DJs — all set against a backdrop of soaring 270-degree views of Los Angeles and beyond.

<https://www.lalolarooftop.com/>

Ristorante Per L'Ora (Downtown)

Ristorante Per L'Ora recently relaunched with a new chef, Andrew Smith, and menu that infuses Italian flavors with vibrant Los Angeles flair. Located beneath the soaring 20-foot golden-coffered Italianate-style ceiling of the former Bank of Italy, the restaurant pays tribute to the historic building's rich history, celebrating its centennial anniversary this year. Guests will find coastal influences throughout the menu including the Bucatini Vongole, a popular dish from the Lazio coast near Rome, and the Orecchiette Birra from the Puglian coast.

<https://www.hotelperla.com/ristoranteperlora/>

Denae's Diner (Downtown)

Denae's, the all-day dining experience in The Delphi Hotel, is a modern-day interpretation of the classic diner, offering breakfast, lunch, and dinner, seven days a week. The indoor-outdoor restaurant on the first level of the hotel serves as a gathering place for the DTLA community, as well as hotel guests and destination diners. With retro interiors inspired by old Hollywood and LA's historic Broadway Street, Denae's offers a full bar and features a playful take on a nostalgic menu items.

<https://www.denaesdiner.com/>

HOTELS – DINING – ARTS & CULTURE – SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT – OUTDOORS & WELLNESS - LAX

Levain Bakery (Larchmont)

You no longer have to jam Levain's hockey puck-sized cookies into your carry-on before flying back home because this NYC classic (finally) opened its first location on the west coast. At their new Larchmont Village shop, you'll find signature flavors like walnut chocolate chip, coconut caramel, and rocky road with marshmallow bits. Coffee drinks are available, too, plus sticky buns, loaf cakes, breads, brioche and pastries if your sweet tooth isn't demanding a cookie today.

<https://levainbakery.com/pages/larchmont>

Shirley Brasserie (Hollywood)

Indulge in an innovative dining experience at Shirley Brasserie, celebrating the timeless splendor of the Golden Era at the iconic Hollywood Roosevelt. Experience the perfect blend of old-world charm and modernity at our intimate yet vibrant brasserie, exuding elegance and sophistication with its inviting ambiance and an expertly crafted French and Californian fusion menu.

<https://www.shirleybrasserie.com/>

LeeGa (Koreatown)

Eater LA calls this soup specialist “the most exciting new Koreatown restaurant to open in years”. Their small menu services some of Koreatown’s best soups, Naengmyeon and handmade dumplings. To compete against the plethora of other specialty restaurants in the neighborhood, LeeGa’s soups are most authentic to Korean soup and noodles back home.

<https://leegaktown.com/>

Juliana (Koreatown)

Mixing up the traditional K-town food offerings is new opening Juliana, the brainchild of celebrity chef Chris Oh. His new dining destination is designed to draw in both diners and drinkers, capturing the latter before or after they eat at one of Koreatown’s favorite spots. The upscale lounge offers signature dishes include lobster risotto, grilled pulpo and lamb chops.

<https://www.instagram.com/julianalosangeles/>

Ōwa (Venice)

Rising from the ashes, Ōwa is taking over a space on Abbot Kinney that burned down in 2018. Now, Ōwa is a Japanese and craft cocktail hangout featuring sushi served from a counter as well as chirashi bowls and omakase. Transforming from day to night, the sushi bar goes standing-only from 11pm, complemented by music, cocktails and floor-to-ceiling windows.

<https://owavenice.com/>

Atla (Venice)

Flying over from NYC, Atla has opened its first West Coast location in Venice. This casual restaurant welcomes diners to enjoy a quick taco, one-dish meal or drinks with friends. The menu of Mexican favorites uses produce from local farmers, bringing a clean, healthy and authentic approach to Californian-style Mexican food.

<https://www.eatatla.com/>

HOTELS – DINING – ARTS & CULTURE – SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT – OUTDOORS & WELLNESS - LAX

Donna's (Echo Park)

Donna's is inspired by an east coast, red sauce joint. The menu is made up of those Italian-American classics done to a high standard with California ingredients. The restaurant is loud and lively, with warm and familiar service.

<https://www.donnasla.com/>

The Original Farmers Market (Mid-City)

Gone Bananas Bread is now open inside the Original Farmers Market, selling slices and loaves of its namesake bread. The Pink and yellow shop joins another recent newcomer, Thicc Burgers, the only Black, queer-owned space at the historic market.

<https://farmersmarketla.com/>

NEW OFFERINGS

Rooftop Garden at Providence (Hollywood)

Fresh off the back of retaining their two Michelin Stars as well as earning a Green Michelin Star, Providence is now getting into urban beekeeping! Their on-site rooftop habitat garden is now home to a prosperous set of Italian honeybee hives re-hived from a local bee rescue which have generated over 100 lbs. of honey since last year, with 160,000 bees currently residing on the Providence rooftop garden.

<https://providencela.com/>

ABOUT LOS ANGELES & LOS ANGELES TOURISM

Los Angeles Tourism & Convention Board (Los Angeles Tourism) is the official non-profit destination marketing and sales organization for the City of Los Angeles. Through its brand marketing and sales efforts in 12 countries, Los Angeles Tourism works to inspire travelers to choose Los Angeles for a vacation, meeting or convention and, in turn, advance the city's economic prosperity. Los Angeles Tourism is the ultimate resource for where to stay, play, shop and meet throughout the L.A. area, from Hollywood and Downtown to the Valley, Westside and Beach Cities. For more information, visit discoverlosangeles.com/travel-trade or follow @discoverLA on Twitter, Instagram and TikTok.